

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

In re: COURT CLOSURE,

No. 25-00001

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

On December 29, 2024, President Biden issued a Proclamation Announcing the Death of James Earl Carter, Jr. In honor of and in tribute to the memory of former United States President James Earl Carter, Jr, and as an expression of public sorrow, President Biden declared January 9, 2025 as a National Day of Mourning throughout the United States. President Biden called on the American people to pay homage to the memory of former president Carter, and “invited the people of the world who share our grief to join us in this solemn observance.”

In recognition of the National Day of Mourning, all executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government, the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Administrative Office of the Courts, will be closed on January 9, 2025.

IT IS ORDERED,

Following the lead of the Executive Branch of the United States, the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Administrative Office of the Courts, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Mexico likewise will be closed on January 9, 2025. For federal leave purposes, January 9, 2025 will be treated as a federal legal holiday for employees of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Mexico, including those who work in chambers, the Clerk of Court, and employees of the Clerk.
